

Irish Verbs 1 syllable past tense

The past tense

If the word starts with a consonant you add a 'h' after the first letter e.g. Chuir

If the word starts with a vowel you add D' e.g. D'ith

1 syllable verbs

When you want to say we as Gaeilge you must use the ending

-eamar or -amar

If the last vowel in the verb is e or i you add -eamar to the end e.g. Bhris - Bhriseamar

If the last vowel in the verb is a o or u you add -amar to the end e.g. Dhún - Dhúnamar

Put the following verbs into sentences use both the singular e.g. chuir and the plural chuireamar

E.g. Chuir sé an babhla ar an mbord. (He put the bowl on the table)

Chuireamar an cupán sa chófra. (We put the cup in the press)

You do not need to write the English translation

Use your dictionary to help with vocabulary mé - I

tú - you sé - he sí - she

sibh - you (plural)

siad - they

1. Chuir/ Chuireamar - put
2. Dhún/ Dhúnamar - closed
3. Ghlan/ Ghlanamar - cleaned
4. Chaith/ Chaitheamar - threw
5. Thóg/ Thógamar - took
6. D'ól/ D'ólamar - drank
7. D'ith/ D'itheamar - ate
8. Bhris/ Bhriseamar - broke
9. Rith/ Ritheamar - ran (r doesn't take a 'h' after it)
10. Thit/ Thiteamar - fell
11. Bhain/ Bhaineamar - take off